

Student Loan Forgiveness and Financial Essentials for Educators

Brought to you by NEA-NH and NEA Member Benefits

Tuesday, May 10, 2022, from 4:00-5:00 p.m.

Have you ever asked yourself these questions?

- How do I start saving for a new car or a house?
- Do I qualify for student loan forgiveness?
- Where and how should I start my retirement savings?
- Why is good credit so important?
- What are the financial benefits of membership in NEA-NH?

NEA-NH and NEA Member Benefits wants you to be informed and to take control of your financial future! Join us ONLINE via Zoom to increase your financial awareness and to ask your questions. This seminar is presented by our partners from NEA Member Benefits, including Mike Reilly, Anne Murray, and Jeff Parsons. We will provide you with direction to start off on the right financial foot, with help from your union.

All NEA-NH members are invited to attend for free, but this seminar is geared toward those beginning their careers or just starting to plan their financial futures.

REGISTER BY MAY 9:

Tuesday, May 10, 2022, from 4:00-5:00 p.m. Register at <https://cvent.me/2EkwEn>

Don't let fear of the unknown keep you from achieving your financial goals! We will give you the tools you need to make confident choices and build long-term security.

